

CAPITOL WEEKLY
TOP 100 LIST PART 2
Special Section APRIL 23, 2009

Roger Salazar, partner, Acosta/Salazar

Salazar and his firm are part of the cadre of rising political stars that still merit mention on this list. Salazar is a veteran of the Clinton White House, the Al Gore campaign and the David administration. He also serves as the chief spokesman for the state Democratic Party. His firm has carved out a niche representing moderate candidates and issues, with a focus on causes and candidates in the Central Valley. Both Salazar and his partner, Andrew Acosta, hail from Lodi, and the firm's expertise will only become more important to Democrats as the state's population and power drifts inland.
